Introduction

Hi!! i'm José Daniel Camacho, i have been programming for 3 years, studying web technologies like JavaScript and React and backend development with python. I consider myself hard-working and empathic with mi co-workers and I'm good at identifying problems. I start to work as freelancer in 2021 when i make some landig page's and collaborate in the development of some web apps for a small business, today i'm full stack developer in XT Online Software.

My skills

Adaptability to change

Continuous learning

Team player

My best practices

I try to apply TDD as much as I can. I find it important to write well-documented code, either because it is descriptive or because it explained what I was looking for in relation to the functionality I was looking to implement.
